

EMILY J. ATHERTON

Senior Counsel

BIOGRAPHY

Ms. Atherton's experience encompasses a wide range of areas, including environmental clean-ups, toxic tort and product liability litigation, as well as those involving employment issues. With the advantage of having defended companies for many years, she is able to use this insight to effectively represent individuals who have been harmed. Her background has provided her with the skillset to zealously advocate for clients, whether that client is a business entity or an individual.

Ms. Atherton's practice continues to include a variety of different areas, but her focus is on employment and business litigation. With over a decade of working in state and federal courts, she brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to her clients' needs.

She is a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association's Labor & Employment Section, as well as a member of Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles.

EXPERIENCE

Education

- University of California, Los Angeles, BA Cum Laude, English 2002
- Pepperdine University School of Law, JD 2005
 - Student Articles Editor, Pepperdine Dispute Resolution Law Journal

Bar Admissions

- The State Bar of California, 2005
- United States District Court, 2005
- U.S.D.C. Central, Southern, Eastern and Northern Districts of California

Bar Activities

- Los Angeles County Bar Association Labor & Employment Section - Member
- Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles - Member